After Reading The Records.

A writer in the Saddle and Show Horse Chronicle, issue April 8th, has this to say regarding saddle sires:—
"Theorize as we may, it is the fellow that has delivered the goods to-day who is the one most likely capable of doing it again to-morrow."
And then HE correctly records

BOHEMIAN KING 2410.

The place in the front rank as a sire of show colts to-day. The records not only confirm his statement, but are much stronger. Remember twenty six of his get were winners throughout the United States last year. But why go on? This stallion's phenomenal success as a sire has made him the sensation of the saddle horse world.

Put a system to work on the farm and get busy. Let the system work all the time, and you will soon be on easy street. Get over the habit of being a pessimist and learn to look on the bright side of everything. The grouchy farmer and soil tiller is a failure. It is the happy and contented man who takes things as they come—whether good or bad—that succeeds. Don't be a grouch.

Mr. Marion Johnson Purchases Farm.
Mrs Fannie Farra sold to Marion Johnson 40 acres off the south end of her farm for $100. per acre, possession to be given Jan. 1, 1914. Mr. Johnson will erect a home on the land purchased, to which he will move with the coming of the new year.

News Of The Churches.

The Reverend Morgan of Louisville has received a call from the Baptist church, and will give his decision in two weeks time.

The revival at the Methodist church in this city which began Sunday is creating considerable enthusiasm and large crowds are attending every service, day and night. Bro. Pollitt the local pastor is preaching very interesting sermons, and Rev. Andrew Johnson of Chestwood, near Louisville, is in charge of the singing, and lends much to the enjoyment of the services.

Town Lots Sold.

Mr. F. G. Hurt sold to W. F. Champ a lot with sixty feet frontage on Water street, and also an adjoining lot with 120 feet frontage to Mr. James Hatcher. Price private. Each of these gentlemen will likely erect nice residences on their purchases.

House Destroyed By Fire.

A house in "Tin Can Alley", the property of Mr. J. E. Stormes and occupied by Jess Gess colored was destroyed by fire on Tuesday morning. The department responded promptly, but because of inexperienced men not being able to couple the hose properly, it was impossible to secure sufficient pressure in time to save the building. The lack of pressure was not due to the new stand pipe, as Mr. Herron adjusted the hose and threw water over the electric light pole in the park immediately after the fire.

Street Fair In May.

Lancaster is to have a Carnival or Street Fair during the week beginning May 5th. The Littlejohn Amusement Company are coming under the auspices of the local lodge of Odd Fellows.

This same company was here last year and gave splendid satisfaction, the shows were clean and unobjectionable, the management were clever, straightforward business men and they carried a splendid Italian band. They have added many new features this season, including a counterpart of "Almee", a Wild West Show, and many other attractions.

Write All The Silly Letters You Like Then Burn Them.

"What is there about love?" asks Heine who has been called Germany's greatest love, "that makes the strongest-minded man into the silliest fool?" And if you read the daily papers you will not wonder that he asked the question.

Many a man has had to pay and pay well, in dollars as well as in ridicule, for the foolish letters he has written, and they are not always love letters. You can hardly take up a newspaper without seeing where the "deadly letter writer" has gotten in his work.

I do not believe an adult human being can be found who has not regretted, at some time or another, writing a letter. It may be one from a loving woman to an unworthy man who has taken the warm, tender words which she put down on paper straight from her heart and used them to hurt her. It may be a letter full of harsh words that would be better left unsaid. It may be a secret that should not have been told, and putting it on paper makes it much worse.

Letters, my dear girls, and young men, are very dangerous things, with the awful propensity of bobbing up before your face when you least expect them and making you blush with grief and shame.

So, girls, when you feel like writing a letter straight from your heart to your best young man, go ahead and do it. Pour out your very soul. Say as many foolish, loving little things as you wish, "Get it out of your system," and then be sure and burn the letter up. Don't ask the man to whom you send it to "burn this." Remember one of America's greatest statesmen lost the presidency of the United States because he asked the other fellow to "burn this" instead of burning it before sending it.

The little 18 months old baby of Leslie Sebastian which has been so very low with what the Dr's called consumption is some what improved at this writing and we hope for his speedy recovery.

Isn't it a pleasure to read the Record now; so many interesting events. But oh what a shame when our eyes fell on the burning of Mr. Link Millers house and to think of the very idea of a woman being accused of such a crime it is something awful. But as long as this sinful world stands will such be. But let us only trust in God for love and grace to keep our hearts pure toward our fellow men, that we can see them live and prosper instead of doing them harm.
